

Lucy Chambers

After 20+ years as a primary school librarian, Lucy Chambers now concentrates on promotion of reading, children's books and school librarianship. She coordinates children's events for the Chiswick Book Festival and is a judge on its poetry competition for young people. She writes for school librarianship magazines, is an advisor for Give A Book (Giveabook.org), a book group leader for the UKLA Information Book Award, and a children's book reviewer. She also advises on all aspects of running primary school libraries. Follow Lucy on Twitter @booklishL.